New Real Estate Firm Is Organized

Announcement is made of the opening of a new real estate office in Auburn Park under the name of Schuberth & Sheridan at 7907 S. Halsted St.

The new firm is composed of Henry F. Schuberth, an old timer in the real estate business in Auburn Park, well known throughout the city and with a host of friends made in the past years by his fair dealings and obliging ways; and Michael K. Sheridan, former member of the board of assessors of Chicago. While in office Mr. Sheridan did more to reduce taxes for small property owners than any other man who ever sat on the board of assessors. Thousands of home owners thank Mr. Sheridan for his assistance in lightening their burden of taxes.

Mr. Sheridan's experience on the board of assessors gave him a thorough insight as to values of real estate in Cook county and his advice on property values should come in handy in his present business.

The new firm, composed of such well known and experienced men, should do well in their present undertaking.

Nothing Doing—"The overall club is a fine idea for men, but I'm afraid it won't work out."

"Why not?"

"Well, we're going to have trouble if we try to get the women to follow suit and appear in public in housewrappers."—Detroit Free Press.

GOV. COX IS ALSO PRODUCT OF THE PRINT SHOP

Like Harding, Also an Ohioan, Democratic Nominee Was a Newspaper Reporter

From printer's devil to president. That is the ambitious road James M. Cox has set out to travel, and now he has got as far as inducing the Democratic party to put it up to the voters of the nation to decide next November whether they want to send Gov. James M. Cox to the White House or prefer Senator Warren G. Harding. In either event Ohio furnishes the next president. Just as the Republican candidate for president was born in the Buckeye state fifty-three years ago and has lived there ever since, so also the Democratic candidate for president was born there fifty years ago and has made his home there always.

His birthday is March 31. His birthplace is a little farm near Jacksonburg, in Butler county. His parents were farmers, his father of English descent and his mother of German. He worked his way into the Amanda township high school, selling newspapers and working as a printer's devil in a country print shop to get by. The smell of the printer's ink made a hit with youthful "Jimmy" Cox and he set out to learn the trade of a journeyman printer. Then he graduated to a newspaper reporter and got a job on the Cincinnati Enquirer, of which he soon became one of the minor editors.

Into Politics at 24

Young Cox's first taste of politics came when he was 24. He got a job as secretary to a Democratic Ohio congressman with a chance to earn $100 a month and live in Washington part of the time. This job he kept for four years, when he scraped enough money together to get control of the Dayton News. Five years later he secured the Springfield Press Republic, changed its name to the Springfield Daily News, and has operated both papers with marked success under what is known as the News League of Ohio.

The public life of the Democratic candidate for president began only twelve years ago. In 1908 he ran for congress in the 3rd Ohio district and was elected by 13,000. Two years later he was re-elected. In 1912 he declined another renomination and sought instead the governorship of Ohio on the Democratic ticket. He won. Two years later he was defeated for re-election as governor by Frank B. Willis at the same election when his present rival for the presidency, Warren G. Harding, was elected to the United States senate from Ohio. That was in 1914. In 1916 Cox beat Gov. Willis and moved back to the governor's mansion in Columbus. In 1918 Governor Cox performed a feat that has never been done before in Ohio politics, except once. He was re-elected for a third term as governor. His only predecessor who ever accomplished that stunt was Rutherford B. Hayes. Gov. Hayes was promoted to be president and Gov. Cox's friends long have been predicting that he will succeed in imitating Hayes' example.

Has Been Married Twice

Gov. Cox married twice. His first wife, whom he wedded in 1893, was Miss Mayme L. Harding of Cincinnati. He married her while he was a reporter. His second wife was Miss Margaret P. Blair, a Chicago girl, whose home was at 745 Lincoln Parkway. He married her three years ago shortly after he had been elected governor for the second time.

Gov. Cox's record of public achievement is confined largely to what he has done as governor of Ohio. About the very first big problem that confronted him soon after his inauguration in 1913 was the flood which devastated Dayton and the adjacent country. The governor promptly became the dominant figure in relief measures. Then he mapped out and pushed through the legislature plans for public works which have prevented a repetition of the great disaster.

His first term abounded in important constructive work. He got through the legislature a comprehensive system of state aided highways, a compulsory workmen's compensation law, civil service for state, county and municipal employes, a state budget system, a complete reorganization of the public schools of the state, permission for three-fourths of a jury in a civil case to return a verdict, an eight hour work day on all public contracts and a minimum wage and nine hour work day for women. His scheme for controlling public utilities included a law providing property revaluations as the basis for fixing rates, a provision for a court of appeal from decision of the state public utilities commission to the court, of last resort without delay, a prohibition of any injunctions being issued on a rate hearing without court investigation, and finally provision for a uniform accounting system to be applied to all public utilities.

In all there are some fifty-two measures to which Gov. Cox's admirers "point with pride" as his work while governor. They include labor legislation, business service, social service, education, agriculture and good roads.

A few weeks ago Gov. Cox outlined briefly some of his ideas on national needs during a speech before the Iroquois club in Chicago. Here are a few of the things he said:

"There is some hysteria over the subject of active elements in this country that are menacing to the government. There is no danger in the situation, although it might easily be aggravated if the governmental policy of restraint and common sense that has endured through the years were to become one of force and terrorism. There must be no compromise with treason. But the surer death to bolshevism is exposure of the germ of the disease itself to the sunlight of public view.

"We must protect ourselves against extremes in America. The horrors and tragedies of revolution can be charged to them.

Opposes Excess Profits Tax

"It is idle to talk of reducing governmental expense if the nation has to be armed to the teeth, yet vast armies and navies will be necessary if the concerted plan of international peace fails. The guaranty against war is a credit against which a debit charge must be made, and after all this is the very crux of the controversy over the league of nations. There can be no result worth while unless the nations of the earth assume a definite obligation. The mere promise of this country to place its responsibility on the shifting sands of congressional caprice is a travesty to human intelligence."

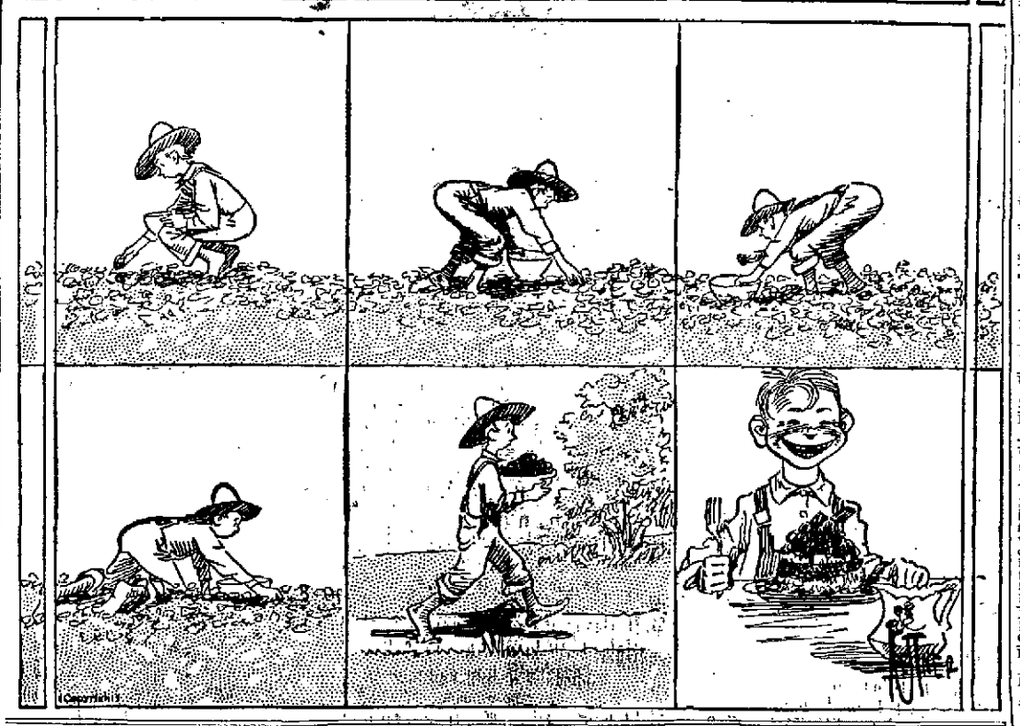
The End of a Perfect Day



Daily Vacation Bible School

Much interest is being manifested in the D. V. B. S. by the members and friends of the Auburn Park Federated Church, as well as the community as a whole. The school, which started last Tuesday, reached an enrollment of 89, boys and girls and twenty teachers. The community has joined heartily in this work. It it a real community school. While the members of this church are very much interested in the school over 50 per cent of the boys and girls are from homes not represented in the church. It is hoped that every boy and girl in our community will attend. We want the community to feel that this school is their school and that every one is welcomed.

Last week the children enjoyed the interesting stories told, joined heartily in the singing and memory work. Kites were made, scroll saw work was begun by the boys, while the girls sewed, made beads, etc. The kindergarten children had a fine time. This week various new things for both boys and girls will be started.

The school meets each day of the week from Monday to Friday at 9 a. m. in the Auburn Park Federated Church, on the corner of 77th St. and Normal Ave.

The Auburn Park Federated Church services for Sunday, July 18: Morning service, 10:45; Sunday school, 12 noon; evening service, 7:45. A. Royall Gay, pastor.

Mr. Fred Banch, of Kraber's Market, with his wife, is visiting relatives in Milwaukee and Waukesha.

STIGALL'S LAXATIVE ASPIRIN CAPSULES

...FOR...

COLDS, LA GRIPPE AND RHEUMATISM

CONTAINS NO QUININE TO AFFECT THE HEAD

PRICE 25 CENTS

W. J. STIGALL, - CHICAGO, ILL.

Laxative Aspirin Capsules are the best known remedy for Cold, La Grippe, Rheumatism and Headaches. Does not affect the head like quinine. In treating a cold it is very important that the bowels move freely every day. These capsules move the bowels gently without griping.

Dose: One capsule every two hours until four doses are taken, then one every three or four hours until entirely relieved.

For severe headache take two capsules and repeat in one hour, if necessary. Two capsules are generally sufficient to relieve the most obstinate case of nervous or sick headache.

When buying Laxative Aspirin Capsules, look for the trade mark and be sure you get the genuine.

For sale by all leading druggists.

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES NAMED BY GEO. BRENNAN

Beat McAdoo With Cox and Dictated Choice of Roosevelt

San Francisco, Cal., July 6.—George E. Brennan and the Illinois delegation nominated the Democratic candidate for president. As a result Brennan is perhaps nursing a hope that he will get a better reward from his nominee than did Roger C. Sullivan with the candidate he put over at Baltimore in 1912.

To make the job 100 per cent perfect Brennan today compelled Murphy and Tammany hall to accept Franklin D. Roosevelt for the vice presidency. The pro-administration forces charge, and the field that opposed McAdoo admit, that it was the Chicago man's handiwork that brought about the convention result.

George E. Brennan, the new leader of the Democratic forces in Illinois, is practically unknown, except to politicians, because since his arrival in Chicago in 1898 he has never held nor aspired to political office, preferring always to be a "power behind the throne." Brennan is a product of the mining town of Braidwood, Ill., where he worked in the mines while he obtained the education which later fitted him to become a school teacher.

He passed from the schoolroom to politics, serving in the office of W. H. Hinrichsen, when he was secretary of state during the Altgeld administration. There he learned state politics so thoroughly that when he arrived in Chicago he was picked out immediately by the late Thomas Gahan to manage his campaign for county treasurer and later by John P. Hopkins, former mayor, to conduct the fight which made Hopkins chairman of the Democratic state committee.

During his long political service Brennan never depended upon politics for his livelihood. For a time he was interested in a coal mining enterprise, but for several years he has been the Chicago agent of the United States Guaranty and Fidelity Company of Maryland, one of the largest bonding companies in the country.

Wilson and Bryan can console each other; they both got beat.

Our prophecy on the next president is that he will be an Ohio newspaper publisher.

It took the Democrats a long time to pick a candidate but maybe it was worth while.

Gerald Sullivan thinks he will be appointed minister to Ireland now that we are to have an editor for president.

Not Much Difference—"I understand you said I didn't have enough sense to come in out of a shower of rain," said Dubson.

"I did not," rolled Gadspur.

"What did you say, then?"

"I merely remarked to a friend of ours that if there was a tax on brains the government would owe you money."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Mr. John Nahser, Sr., and son-in-law, of 7947 S. Peoria St., spent last Sunday touring over many Wisconsin lakes in an aeroplane.

On Saturday, July 3rd, at 2 p. m. Miss Grace O'Connell of St. Brendan's and Mr. Frank J. Sheehan of St. Sabina's were united in marriage. Miss Eloise Sheehan was bridesmaid and Mr. Tom O'Connell acted as best man. The wedding supper was held at the home of the groom's mother, 7610 Carpenter St., after which the young couple, amid a shower of rice and old shoes, departed for a short trip to Starved Rock. They will take an extended trip through the west in August when Mr. Sheehan gets his annual vacation.

Friends of Irish Freedom

Wednesday evening, July 7th, the Robert Emmet branch held what was positively the best meeting ever held at St. Ann's hall, being its regular monthly meeting. The hall was crowded and there was standing room only. Judge Michael F. Girten, one of the most brilliant men of his race, addressed the meeting and the drill corps of St. Christina's Court, W. C. O. F., of St. Martin's gave an exhibition drill and sang the Star Spangled banner and other patriotic songs. When they entered the hall accompanied by Judge Girten, in their beautiful white costumes, the large audience rose as a mark of respect to them, and cheered them for fully ten minutes. Short addresses were also made by Miss Anna M. Nolan and Miss Johnson, state president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H. After the oratory the members of the branch indulged in Irish step dancing to the accompaniment of Prof. Wm. McCormick, president of the Thomas Clark branch, on the bagpipes and the accomplished Miss Theresa Geary on the violin. Ice cream and cake were served by the ladies of the branch. Beautiful Irish songs were sung by Henry Hoening, accompanied by Mrs. Anna Backer, sister of Miss Geary, and the young people danced American round dances until the wee hours of the morning. Altogether from a patriotic and social standpoint it was the best ever given by this patriotic branch.

Judge Girten, to show his loyalty to the Irish cause, subscribed for an Irish Liberty bond and the patriotic priest of St. Margaret's, Father Hurley, sent his check for $100 for the same purpose and young Master Backer, a five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Backer, was duly enrolled as a member of the Robert Emmet branch. On the whole it was a great success and the next will be better.

Keeping Up Appearances—"Is the rivalry between Mr. Gadspur and Mrs. Jibway as to which can have the finer car still going on?"

"No, it was suddenly interrupted."

"What happened?"

"Bankruptcy proceedings. It looks as if they would have to start all over again."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"HOME IN A FLIVVER" IS POSSIBLE AND IT SAVES MANY PROBLEMS FOR TOURISTS

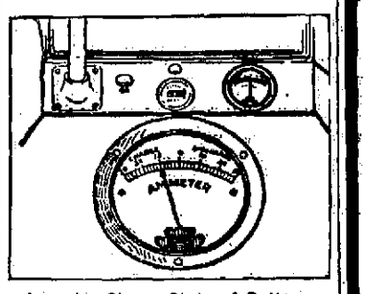
The photograph shows the exterior and interior of the "auto home" of two ingenious people who are touring southern California this winter and was taken near San Diego. It shows just why this couple is not worrying about train schedules or hotel accommodations, or possibly profiteering landlords.

The car is fixed up for a 30-day cruise, drinking water, food, cooking stove, cabinets and every other convenience being on hand. The lower view shows the interior of the car, and if the couple do not like a city they merely "crank up their house" and move on.

PROPER WATCH OF AMMETER

Trouble Invited if Instrument Does Not Register Six to Ten Points on Charge Side.

In cold weather you make shorter runs, use the starter more frequently, and burn lights more hours. Low generating—or none at all—will soon exhaust the battery. If the instrument on the dash which reads "charge" and "discharge," doesn't show from six to ten points on the "charge" side—depending on the car, at, say, 20 miles per hour, you may be inviting trouble.



Ammeter Shows State of Battery.

Boy Is Born in Taxi, Twin in Hospital Here

Twenty-one years from now, when young Mr Kassak is getting ready to vote for the thirty-fourth president of the United States, he will be asked at the primaries:

"Birthplace?"

And he will, if his memory serves him well, answer:

"In a taxicab"

It happened yesterday at 4 15 a m. The "fares" were Mr and Mrs Maurice A Kassak of 1228 N Western Ave. Their goal was the Michael Reese hospital.

Herman Rocklin, driver of the cab, made it in eighteen minutes, but the long-legged old stork beat him by about two Young Mr Kasak's brother was born a few minutes later in the commonplace surroundings of the hospital

Fourth Brings City's Smallest Property Loss

Chicago's Fourth of July celebration was its safest as well as its saneest as far as property losses are concerned Chief John C McDonnell of the fire prevention bureau yesterday announced the losses due to fireworks were far less than in any previous year

Fireworks purchased outside of the city caused most of the trouble, the chief declared "Cicero" was the worst offender," he stated "A string of stores along Twenty-second St just over the city limits sold fireworks without restraint Fireworks also were sold openly in Blue Island"

Three men were arrested Monday for selling fireworks in Chicago Albert Ceken, 1847 W 67th St, was fined $25 and costs yesterday by Judge Hayes in Englewood court Harry Cohn, 4025 W 66th St, secured a continuance Frank Huffell, 6459 S Carpenter St, asked a jury trial

Tire Bursts, Rim Follows; Fragment Breaks Man's Leg

A fragment of an iron automobile wheel rim, hurled by the bursting of a tire on the machine of Lloyd Roberts of 5926 Prairie Ave, struck Anthony Frale, 6219 South Marshfield Ave, and broke his left leg yesterday, at State and Polk Sts

City Contends Dime Fare Profits Would Be High

The city contended before the state public utilities commission yesterday that the Chicago Elevated railroads could continue profitable operation with an 8-cent fare and that the 10-cent rate would return a too great profit if allowed. Special Assistant Corporation Counsel Chester E. Cleveland introduced Ralph G. Davis, in the employ of Mitchell, Castenholz & Co., public accountants, who testified "A survey of the company's records shows its estimated expenditures for next year are $1,111,392 too high" The hearing will be resumed today.

Chums of 45 Years Ago Hold Reunion

Unusual indeed was the little gathering of white-haired ladies, all school friends, who attended the luncheon last Tuesday evening, given at the residence of Mrs S. E. Foster, 6100 Halsted St, in honor of her sister, Mrs L Clarke of Garrett, Ind. Those present were: Mrs. W. L Lees, Mrs J Cleary, Mrs. A Walsh, Mrs. M. Davidson. The latter was Mrs Foster's bridesmaid and life-long friend

Many interesting and funny tales were told of their girlhood days Those were the days of real sport All spent a pleasant afternoon and finished by having a group picture taken of a party of six friends of forty-five years.

Divorced 12 Years, Aged Couple Rewed

A red-cheeked, smiling old lady and a red-cheeked, smiling old man presented themselves at the marriage license bureau in Waukegan yesterday and asked for a marriage license After his first start the clerk asked the usual questions

"Name?"

"Albert and Mary Garland, Milwaukee."

"Age?"

"Sixty-eight, both of us"

Observing the clerk's surprise, the old lady added "We were divorced twelve years ago and haven't been happy since But we think there is still time to find the Blue Bird! Our children are happy, too"

And they started out, more smiling and red-cheeked than ever.

Cloth From Bark of Tree.

The famous "tapa" cloth of Polynesia is made from the inner bark of the paper mulberry. When of the finest quality it is bleached to snowy whiteness and fine as muslin. In tropical Africa the inner bark of a leguminous tree is utilized in the same way. Indeed, it is surprising to learn how widely tree barks are employed as material for clothing the world over. And in the West Indies grows the "lace-bark tree," which yields a delicate tissue so like lace that many articles of feminine adornment are made from it.

"Mother Shipton" Hoax.

Mother Shipton was reputed an English prophetess of the time of Henry VIII. She was first heard from in 1641, when "The Prophecie of Mother Shipton" was published anonymously in London. In 1862 Charles Hindley reprinted a life of Mother Shipton, originally published by Richard Heady (London, 1684). He added some doggerel of his own and wound up with the prophecy that the world would come to an end in 1881. In 1873 Mr. Hindley acknowledged that the verses were a hoax.

TIROMETER

MARK

A TIROMETER adds one-third to the life of a tire, as it always shows the pressure. Kicking a tire won't tell the pressure within 20 pounds. Taking pressure with an ordinary tire gauge is a long, dirty, tiresome job. Have them put on your tires today. Easily installed.
